YOUTH CULTURAL ENRICHMENT ARTS PROGRAMS

“Learning the past to preserve the future”

The Hmong Cultural Center also works to advance the human rights of Hmong interacting with mainstream institutions and systems across the United States as it educates non-Hmong professionals and service workers about the background and culturally specific needs of their Hmong constituents.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT PROGRAMS

These programs are open to everyone and designed to facilitate cultural learning by allowing students to discover and be immersed in different areas of Hmong culture. There are two different programs: Qeej, and Dance

QEEJ CLASS

The classes teach students in the art of Qeej - the traditional instrument. Lessons include playing and dancing. New students with no prior experience may join the beginners' class and those with some experience may join the advanced class. Students will have opportunities to perform for the public at various occasions.

Class Hours:

Mon., Wed., and Fri. 4:00pm - 6:00pm

DANCE CLASS

The classes focus and teach students in the art of Hmong traditional dance. They also introduce the students to the art of Lao-tian, Thai, and Indian dances. Students will similarly have opportunities to perform for the public.

Class Hours:

Tues. and Thurs. 4:00pm - 7:00pm

Why should you or your loved ones enroll in these classes?

- Because they are free of charge.
- Because you will be enriched in the true understanding and practice of Hmong culture and way of life.
- Because no culture should be lost or forgotten.
- Because it is also an opportunity to get together with friends to do something cultural and educative.
- And because playing Qeej, dancing and learning Hmong Culture can be fun.
